Meet your Nurse Practitioner

Mandi Ward, FNP-BC

Education: Georgetown University

Board Certification: American Academy of Nurse Practitioners

Mandi is a board-certified Family Nurse Practitioner with over 20 years in healthcare. She believes health goes beyond the absence of illness, viewing it as a balance of body, mind, and spirit. Mandi's holistic approach focuses on her patients' physical, emotional, and mental well-being. She values building strong, personalized relationships with her patients, listening carefully to understand their unique needs and creating tailored treatment plans that support overall wellness.

Dedicated to collaboration, Mandi works closely with other healthcare professionals to support individuals and families on their health journey. She is passionate about preventative care and health education, empowering her patients with knowledge and resources for informed health decisions.

Outside of work, Mandi is an avid skier and outdoor enthusiast who enjoys mountain adventures with her family, friends, and her Australian Shepherds. Her active lifestyle reflects her commitment to balance, which she shares with those around her.
