Meet your Nurse Practitioner

Cynthia Dunfield, FNP-C

Education: Rocky Mountain University

Board Certification: American Academy of Nurse Practitioners

Cynthia is a Board-Certified Family Nurse Practitioner with over 15 years of healthcare experience. She received her education from Rocky Mountain University with a Master's Nursing Science (MSN), specializing as a Family Nurse Practitioner (FNP).

Cynthia has had the privilege of working in a variety of different healthcare fields always having a passion and goal to serve the geriatric population holistically. This diverse experience, combined with her passion for high-quality, patient-centered care, has helped shape her commitment to providing clinical leadership that promotes wellness and healing for all.

Outside of work, Cynthia enjoys being active and outdoors as much as possible. Some of her favorite activities include gardening, hiking, and kayaking. She loves living in Utah having access to the breathtaking mountains of northern Utah and stunning desert canyons in southern Utah.
