Meet your Nurse Practitioner

Jay Starner, FNP-C

Education: Chamberlain University

Board Certification: American Academy of Nurse Practitioners

Jayandra “Jay” is a board-certified master’s level trained Nurse Practitioner with over 12 years of healthcare experience. She received her BSN and MSN from Chamberlain University for Family Practice and went on to receive her post graduate certificate in Psychiatric Mental Health.

Jay has a variety of healthcare backgrounds but holds a strong passion for geriatric and palliative medicine, where she finds deep fulfillment in providing compassionate, holistic, and culturally competent care to patients and their families.

Outside of work, Jay enjoys the outdoors, walking, fishing, training her 2 dogs—Maggie, a Bullmastiff, and Misha, a Shiba Inu. She enjoys traveling with her husband and spending time with family.
